cific Schools/Departments or subjects;

(c) whether some of the additional teaching posts are sanctioned as unassigned posts;

(d) what is meant by unassigned posts and how are they to be utilised; and

(e) whether unassigned posts can be allotted to a new School of Studies or Department; for starting of which the required procedures are not earlier fulfilled ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA): (a) to (e) The University Grants Commission (UGC) meets the entire development and maintenance expenditure on Central Universities. The Central Universities are required to submit development proposals to UGC at the beginning of each Five Year Plan. In addition, development proposals can also be submitted by the Universities during the Plan period to meet specific requirements. The development proposals of Central Universities, inter alia, contain proposals for creation of new Faculty positions.

Generally the teaching posts sanctioned by UGC for Central Universities are earmarked for specific Schools/Departments. However, the Commission also sanctions additional teaching posts without assigning them to any specific School/ Department. The distribution of such unassigned posts is left to the discretion of the University authorities.

According to the information furnished by UGC, the unassigned posts are sanctioned for strengthening of existing Departments/Schools and not for creation of new Schools/ Departments.
